Extravaganza puts Elk Point in merry mood

By VICKI BROOKER

Review Staff

Elk Point was definitely looking a lot like Christmas on Friday evening, as the Elk Point Chamber of Commerce presented their annual Christmas Extravaganza.

From mid-afternoon on, a steady stream of youngsters trooped into the Seniors Recreation Centre to hop on Santa's knee and tell him this year's wishes and have their photos taken.

Most of the families, along with a number of other visitors, stayed at the centre a while to enjoy the display of art by ten artists and a talented group of high school students.

Renita Senz, whose artwork ranges from graphite to acrylics, coordinated the show and said she was very impressed by the work on display.

Up the hill at F. G. Miller High School, the annual Craft and Trade Show and Book Fair got underway at 4 p.m. and was well filled with shoppers and browsers throughout the evening. Everything from handknit slippers and handcrafted jewelry to high-quality cookware and scrapbooking supplies was on offer, in addition to the school library's fundraising lineup of books for all ages.

Back down on Main Street, Elk Point Minor Ball and Elk Point Trail Riders Snowmobile Club were busy with their own fundraisers, the first group selling hot dogs to swell their fund for new uniforms, the second group raising money with hot dog, 50-50 and raffle sales to assist a family with a young child with serious health problems. Inside Elk Point Co-op, a spin-to-win fundraiser saw a long line-up handing over toonies to support the water spray park in exchange for a spin that could win them anything from a trailer hitch cover or a bag of popcorn to an electric kettle or a salad set.

In early evening all attention was centered on the Winter Wonderland Parade, a long and beautiful procession of brightly lighted floats and industrial equipment, led by Santa aboard the first of three horse-drawn wagons.

Town council shares local policing concerns

By VICKI BROOKER

Review Staff

RCMP Sgt. Brad Lazicki visited Elk Point town council last week and reported that with the arrival of a member filling a half-time position at Frog Lake at the end of the month, he will be able to dedicate one member to Elk Point for much of the time. He has also assigned a member to seniors liaison, who will keep in touch with the older population and address their concerns.

This was good news for council, who were invited to share their policing concerns.

Vandalism, destruction of property and young people ignoring the curfew bylaw were high on that list, with several councillors noting that local seniors may be afraid to report these incidents for fear of retaliation. Speeding on the Iron Horse Trail was also a concern.

Mayor Parrish Tung complimented the detachment, which has "shown very good presence with the news column. It shows people that the RCMP are doing their job." Members of council said that they too had heard positive comments.

Community development coordinator Bob Bezpalko told council he is working on his 2010 budget, which includes tourism advertising and signage. The EcoCentre is "a major marketing tool," Bezpalko said. "It meets some of the objectives" from the town's planning session by strengthening the tourism potential. He plans to get the downtown businesses together in the spring to focus on the benefits of tourism, and also has the goals of establishing a wireless Internet connection at the EcoCentre and making the downtown more attractive. The mural's frames and shrubbery, the north business park sign and south entrance sign are also in his plans for 2009.

Bezpalko said that the EcoCentre is already becoming an attraction. "Sixteen people dropped by on Sunday when we were putting the solar array up."

Bylaws passed

The newly revised Sign Regulations Bylaw was given its final two readings.

An amendment to Bylaw 655/07 was passed, reducing the quorum necessary to hold an Economic Development Committee meeting from seven to five members. Coun. Dick Millar noted that attendance at the meetings is small and that subcommittee reports are sometimes lacking.

Alcohol fuels assaults

By Cst. John Spaans

Elk Point RCMP
Detachment

On Nov. 18, Elk Point RCMP responded to a complaint of an assault in Fishing Lake. The caller told police that he had been punched in the mouth by his cousin during an argument over the loss of a relative. Both of the involved parties were intoxicated and the complainant refused to have his cousin charged. The two men were separated for the night to prevent any further problems.

During the evening of Nov. 21, Elk Point RCMP were called to a residence in Frog Lake where two adult males were fighting. The reason for the fight was unknown but everyone was in good spirits when police arrived. No charges were laid in this matter. Alcohol was a factor in this occurrence.

Single vehicle rollover

On Nov. 20 at 7 p.m., Elk Point RCMP and Bonnyville EMS responded to a single vehicle rollover on Riel Beach Road, north of Fishing Lake. The pickup truck swerved to avoid a collision with a deer when the driver lost control and drove into the ditch. When the vehicle entered the ditch, it rolled over and came to rest in a group of trees. The occupants were removed from the vehicle and transported to hospital with non-life-threatening injuries.

Domestic violence

During the early morning hours of Nov. 23, Elk Point RCMP were contacted by a female who had been assaulted by her spouse. The female was not suffering serious injuries and had found a safe place to stay. Police attempted to locate the male but he fled when police were contacted. The matter is still under investigation and charges are pending against the Frog Lake male.

Santas kept busy collecting

The Santas Anonymous collection boxes distributed by Elk Point and District Lions to a number of downtown Elk Point businesses, the library and the schools are beginning to fill up with donations from those wishing to make the Christmas season brighter for the less fortunate.

Donations will be accepted until Friday, Dec. 18.

Anyone who knows of a family or individual who needs this type of assistance this holiday season is invited to phone FCSS director Deanna Easthope at 780-724-3800 by Monday, Dec. 14.

Council shares policing concerns

FCSS funding

The provincial portion of the FCSS budget received council approval.

With limited space in the new FCSS offices and many files that must be stored, council approved an increased budget of $5,032 for furnishings. Town manager Myron Goyan noted that some storage space would be available in the new fire hall for items that are seldom required.

Airport budget

Goyan presented the 2010 airport budget, and said it will also be presented to the County of St. Paul. The proposed deficit has increased from the previous year, despite an increase in rent for the trailer on the site. Among the expenses is the replacement of runway lights, which Goyan said is done only as necessary, or "when coyotes chew the wires off them." The replacement lights have the wires enclosed and are less prone to damage, Goyan said.

Prices should be obtained by the next airport commission meeting on a pavement overlay for the runway,

Goyan said. "When we find out what the bad news is, we'll apply for an airport maintenance grant."

An airport user wishes to build a hangar this coming spring. The commission looked at the possibility of fuel concessions, but has shelved that for the time being.

Council voted to approve the budget.

EcoCentre and fire hall report

The new fire hall is slated for spring completion and is "coming along," Goyan says. It is currently being dry-walled. A need for exterior lighting was noted.

The EcoCentre is currently waiting for the Dec. 11 arrival of the elevator before interior finishing can take place, and is expected to be ready for occupancy by January.

In the bank

Council approved setting up an account for the 50th Avenue development, and moved to pay a maximum of $3,000 for the preliminary engineering that had been needed prior to grant applications. Goyan was asked to find out how much of the project $1 million will do, and also to find out the cost of the water and sewer lines.

Council also moved to invest the $500,000 trail development grant in term deposits. They plan to match $100,000 of the grant each year and do whatever amount of development the resulting $200,000 will cover. They directed Goyan to invest $100,000 for one year, $200,000 for two years and the remaining $200,000 for three years.

The small amount of funds remaining in the original Economic Development Committee account, after all investors have been reimbursed, will be moved to general revenue, council agreed.

Recycling

Coun. Mark Gormley recently visited Vermilion's recycling facility and got a list of equipment, as well as taking photos and notes. That facility has been operating for nine years.

Coun. Dwayne Yaremkevich said that Evergreen is meeting with the minister, and will inquire into the status of funding for the pilot project.

Six year collection delivered

The results of six years of collecting beverage can tabs were delivered to an astonished Elk Point Volunteer Fire Department last Wednesday. When Clarissa Gusnowski, then five years old, was diagnosed with cancer in November 2003, the firefighters organized a head-shaving fundraiser to help the little girl and her family. When Clarissa attended the Dec. 18, 2003 fundraiser, she saw a poster on the fire hall wall, urging everyone to save can tabs to help purchase equipment for children in hospitals. She asked her mother, "Can I collect tabs to help somebody like everybody helped me?" and the rest is history. Clarissa and her brothers Coleton and Cayleb are shown with the firefighters and her collection: five huge apple boxes and 14 pails and containers of tabs. Mike Chubey of the Elk Point Elks Lodge was also on hand and said he would deliver the tabs to the Alberta Elks Tabs for Tots, where the money they bring goes for special needs of children in small community hospitals.

Lodge residents pay kindness forward

By VICKI BROOKER
Review Staff

Just before Halloween, a large delegation of Grade 1 students from Elk Point Elementary School visited Heritage Lodge, bringing along a number of cheerfully decorated Jack-o-lanterns, many of which they left with the lodge residents at the end of their visit.

Those pumpkins originated with Servus Credit Union employee Lorrie O'Reilly, as a kick-off of the Feel Good Ripple program.

In appreciation of the students' visit and their gifts, the Heritage Lodge residents decided to collect donations for the community's proposed Water Spray Park, and gathered a total of $115.50, with resident Winnie Shepherd presenting the funds to Elk Point Recreation Coordinator Valerie Lazicki last Wednesday. "We wanted to pay the kindness forward," Shepherd said.

Lazicki says the Water Spray Park committee has about $100,000 to raise, and so far has had a bottle drive and some donations toward the total. More donations are now coming in monthly through a program coordinated with the town office, where residents pledge to add a donation each month to their utility bill payments. The committee's next fundraiser, shared with the chamber of commerce, is the CFCW Critters hockey game on Dec. 17.

Heritage Lodge senior Winnie Shepherd presented Elk Point's recreation director Valerie Lazicki with a cheque representing the donations collected from Heritage Lodge residents toward the Water Spray Park.

Shoeboxes on their way

By VICKI BROOKER
Review Staff

Elk Point's Operation Christmas Child coordinator Margaret Modin reports that the 2009 campaign is now complete, and 17 shipping boxes holding 297 shoeboxes and three shipping boxes of toys have been shipped to Calgary for distribution to children in Paraguay, Venezuela, Chile, Kuwait, the Ivory Coast and Sierra Leone.

Modin was appreciative of the support for the program shown by children and adults in the community again this year. She also praised the workers in Calgary who process the boxes in preparation for shipment to the needy in these other lands.

"It is good for those of us who live in this land of plenty to share with those in other lands who have so little. When we see the joy that our kids, who experience getting gifts here have when they get a Christmas gift, we can only imagine the joy of a child who has never had a gift when they get a shoebox."

Volunteers Denise Bjorkman, Diane Dewan, Daniel Peterson, Valerie Younker, Ruth Vogel and Daphne Schnurer spearheaded the campaigns in their schools, churches and library, Modin says. Bev Peterson helped to pack and seal the shipping boxes.

Cliché end for Grey Cup

We've all heard the sayings, from Yogi Berra's "It's not over until it's over," to Winston Churchill's "Never, never, never, never give up," and obviously, the Montreal Alouettes are firm believers in that theory today, even if they weren't before Sunday's contest.

On the other hand, the Saskatchewan Roughriders are reminded, "Don't count your chickens before they're hatched." Our team-next-door should have remembered that 13 is often considered an unlucky number, because it certainly proved to be so for them.

What both these teams have learned is a good lesson for all of us. Don't give up even when the goal seems to be unreachable, because miracles can happen. And don't count on a win just because you're way ahead, because, as Murphy's Law always reminds us, if something can go wrong, it will. That's life.

WAY BACK WHEN...

Building boom, new board, big drilling program

HERE'S THE NEWS THAT MADE THE HEADLINES OF THE LAKELAND REVIEW AND THE ELK POINT REVIEW FOR THE WEEK OF DEC. 1 IN...

1984

A business building boom was underway. With a Work Wearhouse franchise outlet, a Tags Food and Gas store and a new motel, restaurant and lounge complex going up, with both Work Wearhouse and the Alico Motor Inn scheduled for pre-Christmas openings. Bonnyville MLA Ernie Isley urged communities and chambers of commerce to give their concerns regarding the impact of oil development on area roads to the Heavy Oil Advisory Committee.

1989

Elk Point Mural Park received a $5,000 provincial grant that would be used to get the landscaping of the area underway the following spring. Marshall Kachmar, Victor Stepa, John Emery, Rev. Sam Donaldson, Niki Riemer were appointed to the new community services board, with Mayor Bruce Kleeberger and Coun. Adele Mandryk representing the town.

1994

Supreme Honoured Royal Lady Elaine Hennell of the Order of the Royal Purple of Canada was welcomed to the local lodge by District Deputy Lena Stepa and Honoured Royal Lady Marie Buck. Pan Canadian Petroleum told residents at two open house meetings that they planned to double production in the area with a major drilling program of 210 wells.

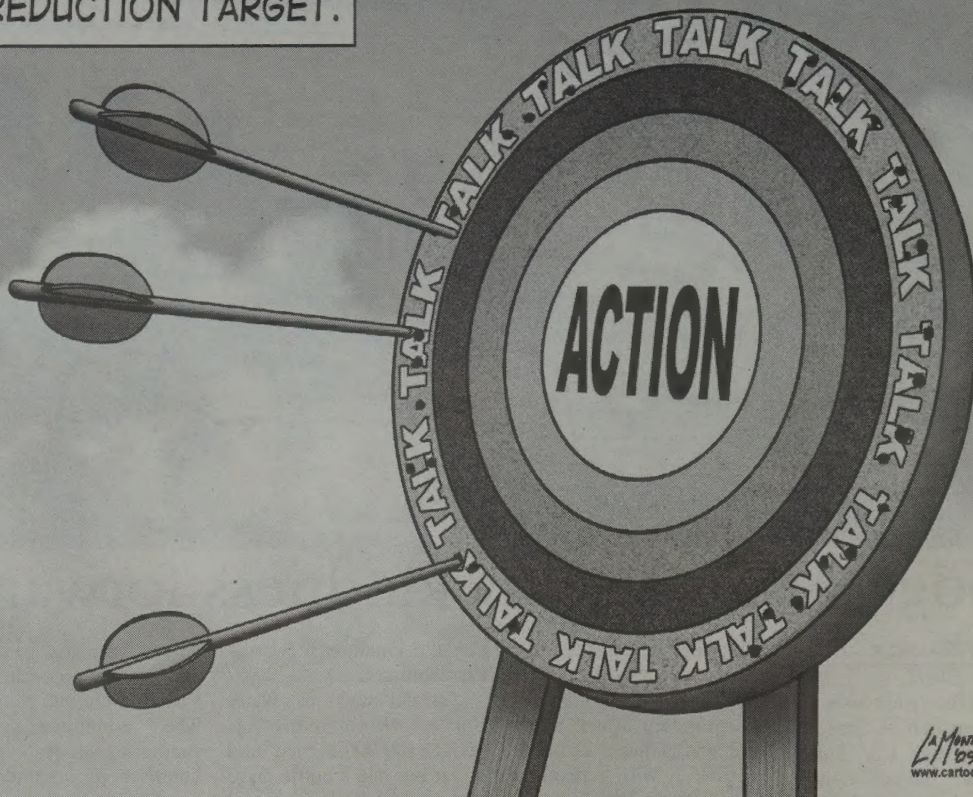

1999

Elk Point schools, churches and individuals sent a total of 204 shoeboxes of gifts to needy children in Central America under the auspices of Operation Christmas Child. The chamber of commerce recognized Steve Wolanuk for his contributions to the business community during his 23 years as a business owner.

2004

Progressive Conservative candidate Ray Danyluk was returned to his Lac La Biche - St. Paul seat in the legislature after an overwhelming majority of votes were cast in his favour during the provincial election. Local Iron Horse Trail supporters were excited to learn that the Trail had won Travel Alberta's ALTO award for Alberta Pride and that Riverland Recreational Trail Society president Marvin Bjornstad had been presented with an Recreation Volunteer award based on his involvement with the IHT.

GUEST COLUMN

December giving

Yes, today is December 1 and even though we can't believe it, December has really arrived, of course we think of Christmas. With Christmas being around the corner, I imagine many of you are pondering about what to buy or not to buy for your loved ones. To help you answer this question, I found the following story. It is a story about the King's New Highway.

Once a king had a great highway built for the members of his kingdom. After it was completed, but before it was opened to the public, the king decided to have a contest. He invited as many as desired to participate. Their challenge was to see who could travel the highway best. On the day of the contest the people came. Some of them had fine chariots, some had fine clothing, fine hairdos, or great food. Some young men came in their track clothes and ran along the highway. People traveled the highway all day, but each one, when he arrived at the end, complained to the king that there was a large pile of rocks and debris left on the road at one spot. This got in their way and hindered their travel.

At the end of the day, a lone traveler crossed the finish line and wearily walked over to the king. He was tired and dirty, but he addressed the king with great respect and handed him a bag of gold. He explained, "I stopped along the way to clear away a pile of rocks and debris that was blocking the road. This bag of gold was under it all and I want you to return it to its rightful owner."

The king replied, "You are the rightful owner".

The traveler replied, "oh no, this is not mine. I've never known such money".

"Oh yes," said the king. "You've earned this gold, for you won my contest. He who travels the road best is he who makes the road smoother for those who will follow."

There are probably a couple of messages in this story that could help us with our Christmas shopping. One message would be that a good gift to give a person is a gift that would help them. This could be any kind of service to them rather than purchasing something costly. The second message could be that there is danger in complaining like the people did who found rocks and debris on the road but did nothing about it because they thought since it was the Kings Highway, he would find a way to correct the problem.

How does this relate to purchases at Christmas time? For example, I could say, I really need a new car for Christmas because the old one keeps braking down. Our expectation would be that the other person would find a way to purchase it even though the cost is far beyond what they can afford to purchase for us. Yes this example is a far extreme example, but the message is still the same. Expectations can sometimes cause a hardship with the gift giver. But maybe at this time, high expectations may not be such an issue. With the down turn in the economy and the uncertainty of family economics, maybe expectations are not as high as they would have been.

There is a poem by Oren Arnold called "The Spirit of Giving" which puts all of this together.

Christmas gift suggestions:

To your enemy, forgiveness.
To an opponent, tolerance.
To a friend, your heart.
To a customer, service
To all, charity.
To every child, a good example.
To yourself, respect.

Elk Point Trail Riders member Dale Rinas cooks up hot dogs at a fundraiser held to benefit the family of Emily Kulczycki, who is having heart surgery this Christmas season. The Trail Riders also held a raffle for a wheelbarrow filled with Christmas cheer, which was won by George Hahn, and a 50-50 draw. The Trail Riders are still looking for the winner of the 50-50, and if you have ticket number 588726, please call Rusty Berg at (780) 645-0257 to claim your prize.

A wide variety of artwork by F. G. Miller High School art students was part of the display at the art show at Elk Point Seniors Recreation Centre.

Elk Point Minor Ball parents were cooking up hot dogs and serving hot apple cider along Main Street as they raised money for new uniforms for the boys and girls for next minor ball season.

Following the parade, the wagons returned Santa to the Seniors' Centre and came back downtown to give load after load of youngsters and a few adults a ride around town. The ATB opened their doors to serve the chamber's free hot chocolate, and shoppers stopped to chat and visit around two blazing bonfires, one near the wagon ride loading zone and another up by the Extravaganza stage, where Elk Point United Church Junior Choir and Arnie Price and his Country Playboys offered a variety of musical entertainment.

A pair of off-Main-Street venues were also popular, with free movies shown at the United Church hall and the Elk Point 4-H Multi Club raising money for Santas Anonymous with their second annual Turkey Toss.

Promptly at 9:30 p.m., the music stopped and chamber vice-president Lesia Porcina gave the big drum stuffed with draw entries from the day's shopping a few final turns, before drawing the winning entries.

Tickets to the Danny Hooper Show in April went to Jason Kowarchuk, John Wozniak, E. Pilisko and Irene Pilisko. Tickets to the Choral Society Dinner Theatre in March went to Crystal Knopp and Elaine Kalynchuk, while Leonard Demchuk was the lucky winner of the 52" TV.

A glorious fireworks display completed the evening.

Pipeline Safety Information For You – Our Neighbour

For more than 50 years TransCanada has been building, operating and maintaining pipeline systems, and providing energy to North Americans. We have a number of programs in place to protect the people who live or work near our facilities. From design and construction to operation and maintenance, safety is an integral part of everything we do. We are proud to be a part of your community and look forward to working together with you as "Partners in Safety".

Being a Partner in Pipeline Safety

In a case of a pipeline emergency, call: 1.888.982.7222

– if you see, smell, or hear the following signs:

- Water bubbling or being blown into the air at a pond, creek, or river.
- Dirt being blown or appearing thrown into the air.
- Fire coming from the ground or appearing to burn above the ground.
- Dead or dying vegetation on or near a pipeline in an area that is usually green.
- You may not smell much as there is little or no odour associated with the natural gas other than a slight petroleum odour. If the natural gas has been odourized you will smell a rotten egg odour.
- A roaring, blowing, hissing or loud whistling sound.

If You Suspect a Leak

If you witness any of the typical signs listed above, or any other unusual sights, smells or sounds near a pipeline location, it is important that you follow these steps.

1. LEAVE the area immediately – do not use motor vehicles or any equipment that could be a potential ignition source, including your cell phone.
2. Move to a safe location, CALL '911', and then call TransCanada's Emergency number 1.888.982.7222.
3. WARN others to stay away.

Bronze at zones for Crusader Senior Boys

Head Coach, F. G. Miller High

The F. G. Miller senior boys volleyball team wrapped up a fantastic season this past weekend with a bronze medal at the 2A zone tournament in Kitscoty.

The boys had their best finish in five years, beating Assumption from Cold Lake 17-15 in the third set. They got off to a rough start losing the first set but fought back, proving that they deserved the bronze.

Captain Brett Lindquist finished off the game and three years on the team with a tricky play to the back of the court. Brett had a great season and will be the only player not returning to the roster next season.

The boys had a strong season in the local SPAA League as well, finishing third after losing a semi final match to Glendon in three sets.

The Crusaders were in three other tournaments this season in Lac La Biche, Bonnyville, and were the champions of their own Timmy Quinney Memorial.

Brian Poitras, assistant coach, and the faithful fans helped to make this a great year for the team.

Congratulations on making your school and community proud of your accomplishments.

Great season for FGM senior girls

By LAURA LILJE

F. G. Miller High School

The Senior Girls had a great volleyball season! We attended five tournaments: Lac La Biche, Mallaig, Plamondon, Bonnyville and our home tournament at F. G. Miller in which we took home GOLD!! F. G. Miller wasn't the only place the girls played well, though - they advanced past the round robin games to quarter or semi finals at every tournament!

We went into S.P.A.A Playoffs in fourth place and after winning two of three games in round robin play, lost to Mallaig in semi finals.

Zones took us to Bonnyville where the girls advanced to quarter finals. It was a great match against Kitscoty and we took it to three games. Unfortunately, we ended up losing to Kitscoty but played awesome and we should all be proud of our Crusader ladies for their Zones finish!

The progress and success this year was awesome and we should all be proud of our Sr. High Crusader girls!

Unfortunately, the end of every season means that we must bid farewell to our Grade 12 players. We commend our five Grade 12s for all of their leadership, hard work and dedication on the court and to the team. Good luck in your future volleyball endeavors!. The five are: Taylor Jenner #9 (Power, Captain), Alyx Aarbo #13 (Middle, Asst. Captain), Adriahna Faithful #15 (Power, Asst. Captain), Brittany Younghans #2 (Setter), Robyn Maennchen #1 (Power)

All of the players put a lot of hard work and dedication into this year's season. We're already looking forward to next year and hope you are too!

We also really appreciate the Crusader parents for all of their help and support throughout the season.

A down-and-out lady found it wasn't such a good idea to sneak a free piece of pie while the waitress wasn't looking, in a skit created by the creative volunteers at Elk Point Seniors Recreation Centre. The poor dear wound up with a rather scary operation to remove a cat that gave her a serious stomach upset, and gave the Christmas Dinner audience a good laugh.

By SARA HOCHACHKA
Review Contributor

The junior girls volleyball team had a great season at F. G. Miller Jr/Sr High School.

The girls battled hard all season, fighting team illnesses and setbacks. At the end of the season, the girls had won at least one game against each of the teams that they had played in regular league games. The girls participated in three tournaments and tried their best in each one.

Making it to SPAA was a goal for the team, and the girls were able to do this by achieving second place in the east part of the division. At SPAA, the girls played hard, earning second place in their pool. The girls made it to semi-finals, but lost in three hard-fought games.

We're very proud of the effort and dedication the Jr. Girls Volleyball team showed throughout the season, and wish them luck in their future sport endeavors.

Shoeboxes

Pastor Jim MacLellan, John Paquette and Don Tremblott helped to load the boxes bright and early in the morning for Sandy Smith and Mae Hendrickson to deliver to Greyhound in Edmonton for further transportation to Calgary, Modin says. "We couldn't do it without those ladies."

F. G. Miller High School contributed 72 boxes, Elk Point Elementary School 95 boxes, Elk Point Christian Community Church 33 boxes, Avon Glen Mission Church 27 boxes and Elk Point Baptist Church 62 boxes, collected from the congregation "and other community folk who channeled their boxes through the church," Modin says. "Heinsburg School was welcomed back with eight boxes, we missed them for several years.

"Together, each of us doing our small part, will have made it possible for others to share the message of Christmas with children in lands not as fortunate as ours."

OBITUARY YOUNG, Lydia

On November 24, 2009, Mrs. Lydia Young of Elk Point passed away at the age of 86 years.

She will be lovingly remembered by her husband of 52 years, Thomas; daughter, Denise Young of Calgary; 4 sisters, Mary Nyreen, Lily Shultz, Ella Anderson & Adina Wekerle all of Saskatchewan. She was predeceased by her parents, Reinhold & Lydia Rinas; and 2 brothers, Edward & Rudolph.

A Funeral Service will be held Tuesday, December 1 at 2:00 p.m. at the Elk Point United Church, Elk Point. Pastor Mark Sanders will be officiating with interment in Mooswa Cemetery, Lindbergh. If desired, donations may be made to the Alberta Heart & Stroke Foundation c/o Box 425, St. Paul, AB T0A 3A0.

Tie, fireworks for Bantams

BASSETT
Review Sports

It's pretty awesome to have your hockey game finish just minutes before the fireworks blasted off outside the A. G. Ross Arena on Friday night. It would be neat to be able to have fireworks after every game. A lot of times there are fireworks in a bantam game, but it's usually the wrong kind while the game is going on and the boys are feeling a little frisky.

The Bantam Avalanche played Hillmond, Sask., the home of Wade Redden, on Friday night during the Extravaganza festivities, finishing with a three-all tie just before the big bang outside. Team captain "Dan the Man" Garrett banging in two goals, Davis Desjarlais bagging the other marker, as well as assisting on Danny's goal. Goalie old "Mr Scrooge" Brayden Vinge was his stingy old self in this one. Must be getting close to Christmases and he's getting grouchy. On Saturday another Saskatchewan team from Meadow Lake came to town to meet the boys and even though it didn't show up on the scoreboard, there was lots of really hard hustle for our guys.

When these two teams met the last time a few weeks ago, the St. Paul Canadiens ran the Atom Avalanche right out of town, but not this past Saturday, the game was very tight, in fact it was tied up at three-all, tied four-all and tied five-all before the third period when St. Paul finally pulled ahead by a few. The final score 10 to 8 for the Canadiens. Brodin "the Flying Bull" Ference lighting the lamp with five goals plus some great back checking, Brian Bazian with a nice feed to "Haley's Comet" Vinge who hammered a one-timer from the hash mark past the sprawling tender, "the Big O" Brody Odgaard going upstairs with one, and Josh Abraham scoring a real nice one as well. The Barber Brothers Noah and Isaiah and "Ozzie" Austin Stafford going all out showing some good hustle fore-checking, goalie Colton Cardinal was putting on a clinic, he came up with some big timely saves.

The Midget Girls Storm played terrific hockey in a tournament in Bonnyville this past weekend, in fact in the final they were tied four-all after regulation time, then playing a five-minute overtime, still tied, they lost out in a shoot out in the end of it all. Kelsey "the Champ" Vinge, team captain "T-Rex" Becker, Mariah Poitras, and Lindsay "Goldilocks" MacDonald scoring for the Storm. As always, goalie Robyn "Brick house" Maennchen was superb with another top performance stopping the rubber. In the first game on Saturday hard working two-way player Lindsay "Goldilocks" MacDonald scoring the only goal and receiving the player of the game for her solid efforts.

Nothing is worse than having one of your past teammate come back to haunt you. Ross "Hoss" Hawryluk and his family moved to Llyodminster over the summer and he played against our Novice #1 team on Saturday. Not sure how many goals he scored, I'd say at least a half dozen, but he was a force to be reckoned with for sure. Our loss is their gain and we wish him and his family all the best, except when he comes back to play against us. Goalie Zachary McFarlane had his work cut out in this one for sure, but he got by with a little help from his friend Hayden Ludlage who backed him up a few times when he was down and out. Kamikaze forward Angus McFarlane, same spelling as Zach, but no relation, was skating coast to coast, crashing and banging and pulling away from the pack a few times, scoring twice for the good guys, Erin Duffee assisting on the first one. Ethan Tremblay another fine junior two-way player with great skating strides scoring as well.

The Novice #2 team had a very busy, fun-filled weekend, with Extravaganza on Friday night, a game Saturday and another one on Sunday. Wolke Cueva between the pipes in Saturday's game in Mannville, Dustyn Pankiw scoring the only goal. On Sunday with head coach Kevin Hardcastle away, Greg Lychak and John "Jed" Charlton took over the reins and guided the team in Kitscoty, Spencer Hardcastle strapping on the pads and defending the twine, Dustyn Pankiw and Wolke Cueva scoring two each, Tammy Roberts and Kaiden Evans Anderson also finding the back of the net with one each.

And now for the K.A. Campbell quote of the week: "I find it hard to believe that a guy who scores 160 goals over two seasons can be called a floater." Last week's answer to: "I really get the feeling that there are a lot of people who want to see me fail." - Eric Lindros. Now you can email them to sportshound007@hotmail.com

Chick-a-divas a huge hit at Arts and Leisure Christmas dinner show

A capella singers perform with swing and style

The Chick-a-divas, an Edmonton-based quintet of a capella singers, provided a great evening of entertainment at the Elk Point Arts and Leisure Centre on Saturday evening, their varied repertoire taking them from the pseudo-cowboy song, "The Boy from Didsbury," above, to a point where "no other female quintet from Edmonton has ever gone before," in the operatic number at right - as they "put the Diva in Chick-a-divas." In between, they sang everything from a sultry "Hey Big Spender" to a 1960s rock-and-roll "It's My Party" to a rollicking "I Want to Be a Jungle Jane," with a lighthearted salute to the trials and tribulations of middle age, entitled "Aging Grace," thrown in. The ladies also sang a few k. d. lang songs and a number of Christmas numbers, winding up with a glorious version of "White Christmas" that earned them a standing ovation. They came back out for a final number, "Goodnight Sweetheart."
